

The Eastern Clawion.

PAULDING, MISSISSIPPI, AUGUST 16, 1861.

BY CARTER & SHANNON.

VOLUME XXIV. NO. 44.

SUMMerville FEMALE SEMINARY
A Private and Select Boarding School
FOR YOUNG LADIES,
in the Mountains of Neshoba County, Miss.

THIS School presents immenseness superior to any in the Institute, in the superiority of its buildings,
the healthiness of its location, the quality of its museum instruments, and the experience and ability of its masters.

The Principal has secured the services of Professor Hawkins, in the Musical department, and now feels warranted in saying that no school in the State furnishes equal facilities for acquiring this delectable accompaniment.

The teacher of the ornamental department is what she should be, faithful and competent.

McGERBRICH'S SYSTEM OF EDUCATION, TAUGHT AT LAUDERDALE SPRINGS, MISS.

By the Author, L. J. MCGERBRICH.

N. B. All Southern Schools using New Books are Abolition Nurseries, and a call to the South is the best way to expose them.

Let the people know of the true character of the Southern Schools.

It is good to know that the South can immediately produce officers in all branches for resolution of the Constitution and
The States under God, more than any other.

The powers are confined to different departments,
and their boundaries are determined.

The President has no legislative or executive power, but is limited by the Constitution.

It is good to know that the Executive power is limited by the Constitution.
